

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL
21 November 1975

STRATEGIC DELAY: Ford plans to wait awhile before sending the Senate his controversial nomination of George Bush for CIA director. The White House will say he is still needed in Peking. Aides hope that meantime Senate opposition will die down. But Sen. Jackson warns the nomination is "in deep trouble."